Andrew Gamble

Mrs Thatcher's Bunker: the reshuffle and its consequences 6

The recent Cabinet reshuffle belied all expectations: it reinforced the position of the radical Right within the Government. Andrew Gamble, author of Britain in Decline, looks at where the Tories are going.

Simon Frith

Youth in the Eighties 12

The experiences of youth in the eighties is quite different from previous postwar generations. Simon Frith, author of The Sociology of Rock, examines its implications.

Interview with Ken Livingstone 16

The GLC has embarked on a bold course of reform. In this interview, Ken Livingstone, Leader of the GLC, explains what they are trying to do.

Goran Therborn

Prospects for the European Left 21

The French elections have given new heart to the Left in Europe. But the picture remains very mixed. Goran Therborn, the well-known Swedish Marxist and author of What the Ruling Class Does When it Rules, argues that the Left's immediate prospects remain very uncertain.

John Grahl

Reagan in Trouble 26

Wall Street has the jitters. Western Europe is worried. Is this a sign of things to come?
