Features

Harold Wolpe

Apartheid's Deepening Crisis 7

The last decade has seen big changes in South Africa: economic crisis, widening black resistance and significant changes in Afrikaner strategy. What will be the outcome?

Eric Hobsbawm

Falkland's Fallout 13

The Falklands war was not really about the Falklands at all, it was about domestic politics. And it gave a new and ominous portent of what might happen after Thatcher.

Lynne Segal

A Question of Choice 20

The accepted wisdom is that Thatcherism is forcing women back into home. But it's not quite like that.

Michael Rustin

Power to the Provinces! 24

Labour has traditionally been antagonistic, or at best lukewarm, towards decentralisation — be it devolution or regional government. Now the SDP is making the running on regionalism, and the Left can't afford to be left behind.

Jon Halliday

Mr Weathervane takes over in Japan 32

Nakesone has just been elected as the new premier, marking a significant shift to the right in Japanese politics.
