Contents

April 1983 Volume 27 Number 4

Focus 2

The Nigerian exodus • Local councils and decentralisation • Fagan and Trespass

Features

---

Jon Bloomfield

Year of Decision 7

The peace movement is now more powerful than ever. But the Government has embarked on a major counter-offensive. Can we stop Cruise?

Interview with Uri Avneri

Israel lurches to the Right 14

With the invasion of the Lebanon, the Begin regime has shifted further to the right. And future prospects look far from hopeful.

Doreen Massey

The Shape of Things to Come 18

The composition of the workforce has changed profoundly. And so have the regions that make up Britain. The Left has some thinking to do: because the implications are enormous.

Hugo Levie

Britain Goes to the Sales 28

The Tories meant what they said. They are determined to dismember the public sector.

Hannah Kanter and Jennifer Peck

Rape: the Burden of Proof 34

Rape law remains overwhelmingly biased against women.

Channel Five 36

Woman's Hour — interview with Wyn Knowles and Sue MacGregor

Joan Armatrading — Mary Harron

Sanitising the War — Anthony Arblaster
