AUGUST • 1984 VOLUME 28 NUMBER 8

2 FOCUS

The French far right • Municipal militancy * Artificial reproduction • India—a crisis of identity

FEATURES

8 Redrawing the Frontline - Southern Africa in Transition • Victoria Brittain

The recent accords between South Africa and Mozambique and Angola are a major turning point. But the future in Southern Africa remains unstable and unpredictable.

13 The Great Crash of 84? David Green

The world debt crisis seems finally to have come to a head. Several American banks are on the edge of a precipice. Or will a way out be found?

17 Taking men on at their Games Jennifer Hargreaves

Women today have a much better deal at the Olympics than they used to have. But it is still very unequal.

22 New Mirror Image Fades • Interview with Clive Thornton

It looked like a bold new experiment. An attempt to protect some of the better traditions of the Daily Mirror. Then along came Robert Maxwell.

30 Pension Power • Gareth Locksley and Richard Minns

Pension funds enjoy enormous power in the financial market. It's time the labour movement tried to use that power for broader objectives.
