ETHIOPIA/ERITREA

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN THE HOPE RUNS OUT?

Today the headlines are full of the famine in Ethiopia and Eritrea and the magnificent public response to appeals.

In a few weeks' time it could be a different story. The journalists move on to other news.

The emergency aid is running down. The memory of crisis fades, leaving behind the long-term prospect of further famine.

That is why we continue to need your funds and your help. We must keep the issue alive.

We are providing wells, tools, technical equipment. We are involved in agricultural projects. Much, much more is needed now if hope is to survive. Help us to persuade the Government that immediate resources must be committed to long-term development programmes. Please write to your MP.

Help us to make sure that two weeks' news and two months' food are not the end of the world's effort for the people of Ethiopia and Eritrea.

The real world, now in English

Readers International announces a remarkable series in contemporary world literature. Each hardcover volume, by subscription, is just £4.50 (Retail prices average £8.00).

For the first time in English—the making of Nicaragua. Thirty years of their history dramatically recreated in To Bury Our Fathers, the panoramic novel by Sergio Ramirez, his country's foremost prose artist and a civilian leader of the Sandinista revolution.

Written in exile before the Sandinistas swept to power, To Bury Our Fathers brings alive the cruelty and pathos of the Somoza era—essential reading for understanding today's events in Central America. National Guardsmen, guerillas, exiles, itinerant traders, cabaret singers, prostitutes, and would-be presidents: people a spirited, savage, lyrical world, brilliantly imagined by a Latin American prose master.

Go next to Soweto: The children of South Africa's shanty towns struggle in revolt. The noted black poet Siphos Sepamla is first to cast these events in a novel. An instant best-seller in 1981 in South Africa, the government moved swiftly to stop further editions. A Ride on the Whirlwind returns to print, here and in South Africa, now more timely than ever.

Direct from China: the impact of the Cultural Revolution is brought home to us in the lucid, personal meditation of Yang Jiang, an elderly woman scholar. Her story, A Cadre School Life: Six Chapters, is a unique literary record of Mao's attempt to "re-educate" 20 million Chinese, the entire intelligentsia of the most populous nation on earth.

These are worlds we cannot hope to see except through literature. And now such ground-breaking books are available at last in outstanding English translations commissioned for Readers International's non-profit publishing program.

Every other month you receive a new volume in the series. Each is a sewn, hardcover edition, yours at the series price of £4.50 plus 50p for postage. (Retail prices

Your subscription begins with To Bury Our Fathers by Sergio Ramirez, Nicaragua's master novelist.

It will be followed, every other month, by a new volume. Each is specially priced at £4.50. (Retail prices in parentheses.)

China: A Cadre School Life by Yang Jiang (£6.50). The Times Literary Supplement calls it "an outstanding book, quite unlike anything from 20th century China... superbly translated."

South Africa: A Ride on the Whirlwind by Siphos Sepamla (£8.00)

Czechoslovakia: My Merry Mornings by Ivan Klima (retail £9.00)

Palestine: Najran Below Zero by Yahya YakhluF (£8.00).

Chile: I Dreamt the Snow Was Burning by Antonio Skármeta (£9.00).

range from £6.50 to £9.95.) If at any time you wish to cancel, simply notify RI in writing.

How does RI select the books? Instrumental in these decisions is our Advisory Board—translators, editors, and writers from around the world, including Dennis Brutus, Eduardo Galeano, Nawal al Saadawi, Edward Said, and Josef Skvorecky. And the books are further distinguished in several ways:

Each was initially banned or censored at home: RI is particularly committed to conserving literature in danger.

Each is current—from the past 10 years.

And each book is new to readers here—although many have been acclaimed in European editions.

Your subscription assures you of a powerfully good read every two months. It also assures some of the world's most gifted, original writers the means of being heard in today's most powerful international language, English. Please return the coupon right away to receive your first book.
