TABLETS OF STONE?

The year 2,000 looms. As the century closes, socialists will need more to work on than the belief in Unchanging Truths about the working class. Britain is changing fast. Old industries and skills are vanishing, whole communities are in crisis. New technology is changing all our lives. How will working people and their organisations respond? How can the Left regain the popular support currently held for Thatcherite ideas and policies?

The Communist Party, along with others, wants to see socialism restored as the 'common sense' of our age. Communists believe that the working class and its organisations are at the centre of revolutionary change – but go-it-alone attitudes will be disastrous. We need to build an alliance of all the progressive forces in Britain. Mass, popular movements hold the key to socialist change. That's why Communists are involved in the peace movement, and have been active in miners' support groups all over the country. The Communist Party is a campaigning party.

Building an alliance that can defeat the right will be a long and difficult process. There are no simple answers. But then there were never any Unchanging Truths, either.

For six years many people in Britain have admired Nicaragua's dramatic progress in education, health, agriculture, women's and workers' rights, and its determination to remain independent and non-aligned.

The US government's efforts to destroy their economy and finance armed aggression have resulted in thousands of deaths, untold damage to clinics, schools and farms, and forced the use of half of all resources for defence.

Marxism 85

A WEEK of meetings, discussions and debates organised by the Socialist Workers Party
5-12 July University of London Union

THE MINERS' STRIKE—the most momentous industrial struggle in Britain since 1926—has helped to radicalise thousands of workers and young people. Its defeat has increased the turmoil on the left and posed new problems for socialists.

Can industrial action be used to beat the Tories? Can we trust left-wing trade union officials? Is Scargill different? Is Thatcherism the main problem facing the working class? Or is it Kinnockism?

Marxism 85 will provide a forum for discussing these and many other issues. It will also provide an opportunity for exploring the past—the ideas of Marxism and the experience of the working class movement—to understand the present and to consider the possibilities for the future.

This year we have expanded the range and number of debates and discussions. In fact we are organising over 250 meetings grouped into 34 courses for the 2500-plus participants who we expect will attend.

DEBATES ★ Which strategy for the left? ★ Women and socialism ★ Trade unions and the fight against the Tories ★ The relevance of Trotsky today ★ Gramsci ★ Bourgeois revolutions ★ Russia today ★ The falling rate of profit

COURSES ★ Fifty years of the popular front ★ Women and the working class ★ Prospects for revolution today ★ An introduction to Marxism ★ A history of the Labour Party ★ Socialism and culture ★ Problems of Marx's method ★ The rank and file and the trade unions

SPEAKERS ★ Ken Livingstone ★ Chris Harman ★ Tariq Ali ★ Tony Cliff ★ Alex Callinicos ★ Lindsey German ★ Quintin Hoare ★ Nigel Harris ★ Paul Foot

The cost of Marxism, including entrance to all meetings, debates and entertainment, is £16 for the whole week (in advance) and £10 for the weekend. For further details write to Marxism 85, PO Box 82, London E2.
