FEATURES

8 We Are The Champions: Liverpool vs the 1980s Tony Lane

Liverpool is never out of the news. Be it Liverpool FC, Militant or John Lennon, it won't go away.

12 Moderate Muscle: The Alliance Takes Shape Anthony Heath, Roger Jowell and John Curtice

What should we make of this Alliance? Was its vote in 1983a temporary aberration or is it here to stay?

18 The New Detente? East-West Relations After the Summit • Gerard Holden and Mary Kaldor

A new mood now prevails. At least they are talking.

22 The Beginning of the End? The Anglo-Irish Accord

A Roundtable Discussion

The Hillsborough Accord is in place. The meetings have started. Will this be a historic turning-point in Irish affairs, or just another episode in an old juggling act.

28 The Race For Pole Position: The Car Industry Revolution- Daniel T Jones and Andrew Graves

We are in the midst of a revolution in the car industry. And this one will make it easier for small manufacturers to survive.

Working for London

Tune-in to PLUTO
 this Christmas!

Above all a blisteringly powerful piece of work, which sounds as urgent, uncompromising and pertinent now as it must have done in 1970. Guardian

£4.50

'An important contribution to jazz scholarship ... most of its stories are about prejudice and hardships overcome, as well as of determination and courage.' New York Times

'Poetry as performed around London's alternative cabaret spots shuns all that is complacent and literary in favour of rants, rudeness and rhymes.' Alison Fell in Vogue

'An accurate and un sentimental study of unauthorised radio. Required reading for anyone who has ever switched on a radio and been dissatisfied with what he or she heard. This means you!' John Peel
