12
Labour's Prospects Past Imperfect, Future Tense
The Labour Party has a real chance of winning the next election. Eric Hobsbawm examines its record in government, and asks whether it can learn the lessons of the past

20
Peace in the Battle of the Sexes
Women have played a key role in the peace movement. Kate Soper argues that this does not suggest an innate 'feminine' rejection of violence

26
The Importance of Being Liberal

David Steel discusses his party's radicalism, its relationship with the SDP, and what he thinks of the Left

34
The Painful Path to Health
Steve Iliffe argues for a radical restructuring of health care to treat the afflictions facing the NHS
