How does 20p a day turn your micro into a MAINFRAME?

The answer is Micronet. The network that links your computer by modem to the most exciting interactive database in the U.K.

All for 20p a day subscription and the price of a local, cheap rate telephone call*

So what does Micronet offer that has excited 20,000 people to join.

Well, for a start Micronet is an excellent way to keep up-to-date with the very latest information in computing. Our database is continually updated by our team of professional journalists who search out the stories behind the news.

But Micronet is much more than a news service - our revolutionary mainframe Chatlines give you the power to hold real-time conversations with up to 20,000 other users, instantly.

Our free national electronic mail system allows you to send and receive confidential mail to friends and businesses 24 hours a day.

You can even take part in the latest multi-user strategy games. Starnet for example, allows you to compete against hundreds of other "Star Captains" for domination of the galaxy.

Or win big weekly cash prizes by competing in the 'Round Britain Race' which makes use of the latest viewdata technology to challenge you to find secret locations.

Every day new free and discounted software is made available for downloading direct to your micro.

Teleshopping is the ultimate way to seek out high street bargains... or holiday and hotel bookings... computer dating... rail and airline information... Jobsearch... homestudy and schooling... ideas, information and entertainment facilities too numerous to list. As if all this wasn't enough you can also access Prestel's™ enormous database which is included in your subscription.

Micronet: the stimulating, challenging and informative way to add a whole new dimension to your micro. All you need is a modem. So cut the coupon today for your information pack.

For just 20p** a day can you afford to be left out in the power game?
