CUBA FOR EASTER

Granja Siboney, near Santiago

Sierra Maestra

Street in Havana

Tourist's House, Santiago

15 day study tours, travelling by the most direct route via Shannon in Ireland to Havana for 5 days, then by air to Santiago for 3 days in Oriente province visiting the Sierra Maestra and Moncada, before the journey by road throughout the island back to Havana. This tour is planned to include Bayamo, Camaguey, Trinidad and the Escambray mountains, with 3 days on a Caribbean beach near Cien Fuego. Projected visits include a school, a clinic, social services and a pioneer palace with meetings and discussions along the route. Tourist A hotels with air-conditioning and private bath enable this unique tour to be offered at only £700 inc.

EASTER IN ALGERIA

Study tour to Algiers, the Mediterranean coast, westward to Oran and Tlencen, then South through the Atlas mountains to the Saharan oases of Ghordaia and El Oued, returning by Bousaada and the Kabylie. £560 inc.

SPRING IN THE USSR

1 and 2 week holidays on our well-established routes to Moscow, Leningrad, the Golden Ring cities, Tbilisi and Central Asia throughout the Spring and Summer. From £265, 7 nights inc.

LETTERS

10
NHS, Labour's immoral
economy, Clause 28, Chesterfield debate,
racism and abortion,
Grade's cover-up

Michael Heseltine is a standard-bearer of alternative Toryism and a favourite to succeed Thatcher as Conservative leader.
In an exclusive interview,
he talks to John Lloyd
about his vision of the future

20 Thatcher's Lessons

The Labour Party is officially 'rethinking'.
It is not yet clear what that means. Stuart Hall argues we must start the process by learning from Thatcherism. He shows how to do it

30 Social Side Of Cancer

The causes of cervical cancer should be looked for in society, not the bedroom. Basiro Davey
examines the evidence

34 Parting Off The Ways

John Lloyd looks at the link between Labour and the unions, and suggests that both could benefit from a more distant relationship
