

BACK TO THE

FUTURE

A day of discussion on the future of history
Saturday 9 July 9.30am to 5.00pm

South Bank Polytechnic, London Road Site, London Road, London SE7, Elephant and Castle tube.

SINCE THE WAR, a generation of brilliant marxist historians including Eric Hobsbawm, E P Thompson, and Christopher Hill have dominated the study of history. Inspired by AL Morton's 'A People's History of England', they tried to analyse British history from a materialist standpoint, overturning the notion that history was a narrative of great men and great nations.

What would a people's history look like if it was written now? BACK TO THE FUTURE will provide an opportunity to review the past, address the present and speculate about the future.

SESSIONS INCLUDE: The challenge of the New Right • The heritage industry • What is a Left history? • History and the new curriculum • The significance of Retro-chic • History and Utopia • Feminist history • History and the media. Changing perspectives in Soviet history • Black history • Post-modernism • The British marxist historical tradition •

SPEAKERS INCLUDE: Eric Hobsbawm, Shelia Rowbotham, Christopher Hill, Raphael Samuel, John Foster, Jeffrey Weeks, Sarah Lefanu, Patrick Wright, Harvey Kaye, Paul Hirst, Catherine Hall, Gareth Stedman-Jones, and Alun Howkins.

PLUS books, stalls, video festival, exhibitions, food and creche.

For more information, or to register, please fill in the form below and send to

BY THE TIME MOST NEWS FROM AMERICA GETS ACROSS THE OCEAN, IT'S PRETTY WATERED DOWN.

It's no accident that the news you're getting from across the Atlantic seems a little diluted. Twenty-seven giant corporations now control the majority of the media outlets in the United States—and that number is steadily increasing. As a result, important stories that corporate America doesn't want to see in print often don't get published and you get an inaccurate view of what's really happening in the US.

But now, a publication is available in England that will change your perceptions on the state of America: Mother Jones Magazine. In becoming the most widely read magazine of opinion in the United States, Mother Jones has rocked the corporate world—and the Reagan administration—with one prize-winning expose after another.

Mother Jones is distinguished by spirited writing, eye-catching graphics, and in-depth reporting on everything from politics to the arts. We've won scores of graphic design awards as well as every major US journalism award—including three prestigious National Magazine Awards in our first four years of publishing.

Whether our writers are taking on multinational corporations, the medical profession, or the CIA, you can expect the same vigorous approach from Mother Jones. With a unique blend of tough investigative reporting, articles on foreign affairs, politics and popular culture, plus award-winning graphics, Mother Jones is journalism at its best.

Look for us on your local newsstand or write to us at: Mother Jones, Freeport, Oxford OX1 2BR. A one year subscription (10 issues) is only £11.

This advertisement has been produced and paid for by supporters of the African National Congress in its 75th Anniversary Year. Since 1912, the ANC has stood for a new South Africa, a South Africa where human dignity and equality will prevail in the life of all its peoples and the country.

WHAT KIND OF RÉGIME JAILS AN EIGHT-YEAR OLD FOR 'INTIMIDATION'?

In South Africa, little Antra Klubeka, just 8 years old was arrested and charged with 'intimidation'. He was detained and refused bail. When his family finally saw him in the Middelburg Magistrates Court, his forehead was badly bruised and he was crying.

Since the State of Emergency was declared on the 12th June, 1986, some 28,000 people have been detained. More than 10,000 of those have been children under the age of 16. The officers of the law do not have to tell them of the few rights they have. Evidence exists that many are encouraged to plead without legal representation and conduct their own defence. And in the vast majority of cases no charge is ever brought.

A sample of former detainees aged 11-16 were questioned by women representing 14 voluntary organisations. Of the 40 children, no fewer than 24 had been kicked, punched, cased, slapped or spanked. Eight had been forced to exercise for long periods, and beaten for showing tiredness.

Torture by electric shocks, until recently reserved for adult political detainees, has now been extended to include 12-year-olds.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

Please: Send for more information. The ANC believes that people around the world have a right to know about what is happening to South African men, women and children. This is in contrast to the South African regime's censorship of what the correspondent of this newspaper can report. Return the coupon below and we will gladly send you an information pack.

If you can: Make a financial contribution. The ANC needs funds to continue running its schools and hospitals for refugees from the horrors of Apartheid. Publishing information to keep the world informed about South Africa is also an expensive business.

The children of South Africa need your help. Thank you for your attention.

African National Congress

Please send me more information about what is really happening to children in South Africa today. (We will send this free, but it does cost us £2 to produce and post the packages. If you could spare just this amount, it will be a great help.)

to help with children's needs and education to pay for the printing of information.

Step Into New Worlds...

... with the improbable
Readers International

Readers International brings you today's world literature.
Each hardcover volume,
by subscription,
is just £4.75

(Regularly to £9.95).

RI is Good Books—some of the world's best new writing, from South Africa, Nicaragua, China, the USSR, India, Lebanon, and elsewhere.

RI is a Good Cause—most RI titles have suffered censorship at home or were written in exile.

Improbable? RI is an independent press (with no connection to any mega-publisher) that searches out and brings to your doorstep the world's most gifted writers.

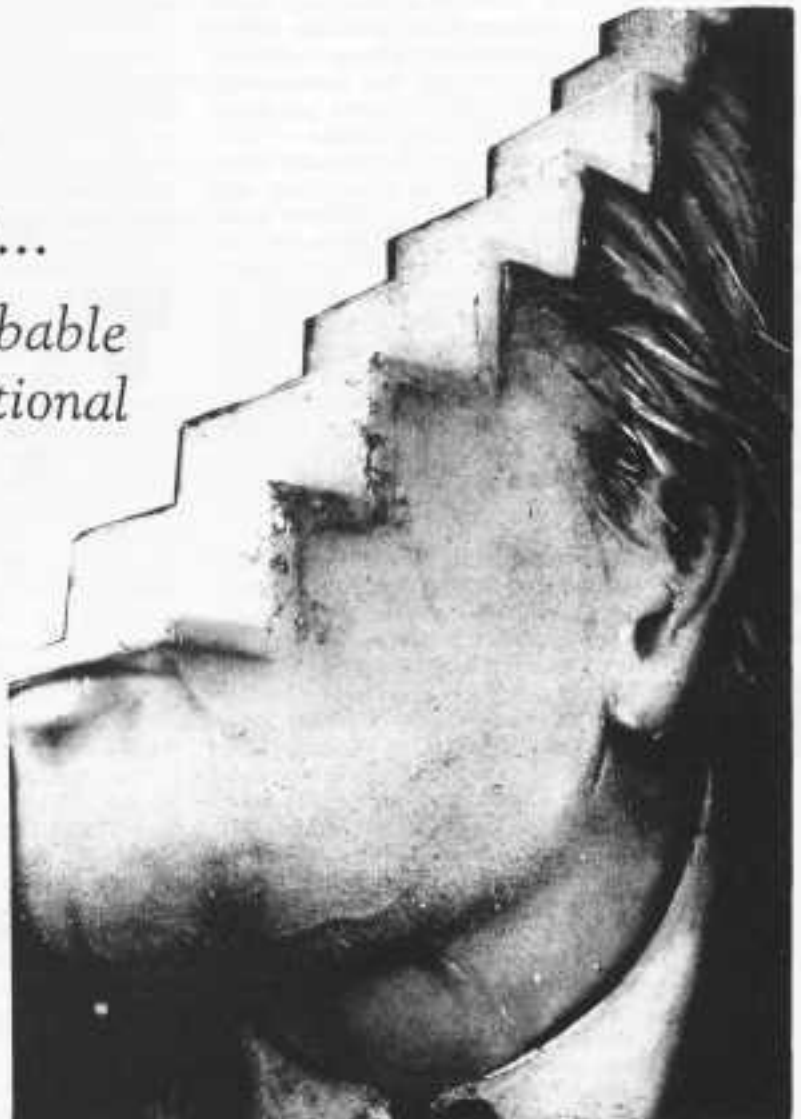

RI's editors select vital new voices from around the world. Improbable? RI introduced black South African Njabulo Ndebele. His Fools, says USA Today, "stands with Joyce's Dubliners." Now sold out but reprinted in paperback for this offer.

And the exiled Iranian Hadi Khorsandi, whose The Ayatollah and I delighted just about everybody but the mullahs. And the impertinent Ludvík Vaculík, author of A Cup of Coffee with My Interrogator, whom the L.A. Times called "the night watchman for the Czech national soul."

This is eye-opening, riveting reading. A must for readers with a keen interest in world affairs and good books.

How good? "With each new offering," says the Washington Post, "RI's list becomes more impressive." And RI's books are well-made: "RI's quality of production is first-class. Many wealthier publishers could learn from them." (The Guardian)

The price is pretty improbable too: for just £4.75 each, every other month you get a handsome, hardcover edition of our newest title.

Step into new worlds with RI, worlds seen more clearly, stories told more freshly than in any press or TV report. RI, says the Financial Times, is "a splendid and important enterprise and worth supporting."

Take that step now. You'll probably enjoy it.

VIOLENCE AGAINST GAY MEN

GALOP is the only organisation that monitors 'queerbashing'.

The police claim it's not a problem. We know differently and we need your help to demonstrate it. If you have been the victim of a violent attack (however trivial it seems) we want to know about it.

We also campaign for effective responses to this kind of violence but we need your co-operation to stop the authorities remaining indifferent to the scale of these attacks.

GALOP, the Gay London Policing Group, assists individuals and groups in their encounters with the Police whether as suspects, witnesses or victims of crime. If you come into contact with the Police and are unhappy with what they have done or failed to do, contact GALOP.

Contact GALOP, 38 Mount Pleasant, London WC1X 0AP or telephone 01-278 6215 (24 hour answerphone) 1989.

Membership £2 w/ged, £1 unw/ged. Publications list available.

The Gay London Policing Group receives financial assistance from the London Boroughs Grant Scheme.

MOSCOW NEWS

To be honest there was a time when MOSCOW NEWS was best read by those who needed to know the size of the latest grain harvest, or read the latest speech by Mr Brezhnev. In short MOSCOW NEWS was of use to the Soviet specialist and those who confuse Moscow with Mecca. Well all that has changed. MOSCOW NEWS is now the magazine for everyone who wants to have an insider's view of what is happening now in the USSR today.

MOSCOW NEWS is packed with comment, debate, criticism, argument and the unexpected. We think you will be surprised by MOSCOW NEWS, which is why we are keen to send you a free copy before you subscribe. If and when you subscribe we will send you a free book as well.

"... Tracy Chapman looks set to be the most important discovery of the current calendar... A strong, uncompromising voice aided and abetted by stark, steel strings... Live for the moment, and in the spring of 1988 that moment belongs to a tough kid called Tracy."

"Her voice is a... soulful mixture of Roddy Crawford and Joan Armatrading... her songs combine the insight of vintage Dylan and the anger of Billy Bragg."

M MACMILLAN PRESS

A major new biography of one of the twentieth century's dominant personalities. Robert McNeal's Stalin: Man and Ruler is the first book to analyse all aspects of Stalin's complex personality. The development of his ideas receives close scrutiny, together with his family relationships, his dealings with – and attitudes towards – Lenin, and his formidable talents for the personal management of diplomacy and war. The biography also investigates his alcohol abuse, the deterioration – and final recovery – of his mental stability, and his ultimate decline.

Robert H. McNeal is Professor of History at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. A regular visitor to the Soviet Union, he is the author of The Bolshevik Tradition, Bride of the Revolution, Tsar and Cossack, 1855-1914, and numerous articles and essays.

Stalin: Man and Ruler is available from all good bookshops. In case of difficulty, please write to Za Bushell at The Macmillan Press, Houndmills, Basingstoke, RG21 2XS. Telephone: (0256) 29242.
