No Port In A Storm

Is Britain's hardline refugee policy about to rebound, asks Paddy Coulter, or merely scene-setting for the 1990s?

Verifiably Green: Ecologists and scientists are learning to live together

Safety In Numbers:
Britain lacks a safety culture at work - and small firms are the most dangerous of all

Food Moods:
The allure of the
supermarket is fading

South Africa:
No cause for optimism in the coming parliamentary elections

POSTMARK II
The wild beauty of the Loire, says Ann Holt, has been tarnished by tourism

LETTERS 13
Good terrorists, Billy Graham, Irish antecedents

14
Gathering Greens
The Green Party has sprung to life. Philip Lowe examines environmentalism's move into the mainstream

18
Football Crazy English football is ailing. But the fans are staging a rescue bid. Chas Critcher talks to Rogan Taylor of the Football Supporters' Association

22
Raising One Voice
The Hillsborough disaster, suggests Rosalind Brunt, should prompt us to review the links between politics and everyday life

26
That Certain Feeling Life just isn't clearcut any more. We are in a new age of uncertainty, argues Geoff Mulgan, which the Left must learn to embrace

34
The Kabul Quagmire
The Afghan government should have been toppled by
now. Fred Halliday explains why it hasn't been

37
New Times For Old
Our discussion of the Manifesto For New Times continues with David Marquand, Anne Showstack Sassoon and Fay Weldon

40
Warhol Warhol
The artist, window-dresser and star assessed by Simon Watney

43
Urban Icon:
Ragamuffin is the sharp edge of a dynamic British sub-culture

45
Punch-Up:
Peter Guttridge explores laughter's international frontiers at the Montreal Festival Of Comedy

49
Street Dreams:
Why is the Right talking about private streets?

50
Scarlett Memories:
Gone With The Wind fans are celebrating 50 years of wondering what happens next

RUSSIAN LANGUAGE COURSES

Our long established programme of Russian courses with Intourist and Sputnik has now been extended in conjunction with the Moscow Cooperative Institute, Leningrad Polytechnic and new organisations in Novosibirsk and Irkutsk.

One month courses in Moscow, Leningrad, Kalinin and Kiev, with winter courses in Moscow and Leningrad and new 3-month courses in Yaroslavl from September, Leningrad from January and Kiev from April.

SOVIET UNION

Wide range of holiday and individual tours to Moscow, Leningrad, the Caucasus and Central Asia. Summer tours also include itineraries combining the Baltic cities, Kiev, the Golden Ring and Yaroslavl with the capitals.

Prices vary according to the organisation or cooperative responsible for reception — from £385 per 7 nights in Moscow and Leningrad to £680 for 14 nights further afield.

CUBA IN SUMMER

Group and individual holidays in Havana, Santiago de Cuba, Trinidad and the beaches of Playas del Este and Varadero using the new Aeroflot route from Shannon at rates as low as £499 for 14 days (and airport parking at £1 per day).

Newly available: Spanish language courses for groups and individuals at Havana Mantanzas and Santa Clara universities, available throughout the academic year.
