NEWSTATESMAN SOCIETY

An essential part of every thinking student's armoury. Stimulating, radical, wide ranging, it is above all a marvellous read - and an invaluable source of information and background reading.

Iconoclastic in approach, unattached to any political party or movement - though with a strongly egalitarian and libertarian bias - NSS brings together some of the world's finest writers. Its interests range from history to fashion, science to sport, sexual politics to bingo, literature to ecology.

NSS is internationalist in approach and is particularly strong on Eastern Europe, the Middle East and the USA with writers such as John Lloyd, Alexander Cockburn. It recently produced a special issue arguing strongly for a federal Europe.

NSS is particularly keen to develop its links with students. Society Today is the NSS section specially written for students. Every week in termtime, Society Today looks at a topic of particular interest to those studying social sciences, politics, history and related disciplines. subjects covered include analyses of the Poll Tax, the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Bill, juvenile delinquents, the future of the NHS, the death of ILEA, monitoring the police, the Social Fund, civil liberties, penal reform and illiteracy. Over the year, Society Today aims to give a concise, comprehensive analysis of issues at the leading edge of the social policy debate.
