The Course of German Nationalism

From Frederic the Great to Bismark 1763-1867

HAGEN SCHULZE

German nationalism led, through wars, revolutions and economic upheavals, to Bismark's German Empire of 1871. Hagen Schulze takes a fresh look at the revolutionary forces involved.

Part-time Distance Learning
M.A./Diploma/Certificate
in Industrial Relations

The Centre for Industrial Relations has established a range of part-time courses: a one-year Certificate, a one-year postgraduate Diploma, and a two-year MA.

These courses are ideal for industrial relations practitioners who wish to develop their knowledge and analytical and practical skills.

Using distance learning materials, with short periods of residential teaching on the Keele campus, the courses are flexible enough to fit in with the demands of full-time employment. In particular, trade union activists and women are invited to apply.

For further details contact:

M.A. in Modern Social History University of Nottingham

The course deals with the major topics of modern social history: historical democracy, rural society, urban growth, industrialisation, class, gender and popular culture, using a wide variety of source materials. It is available on both a full- and part-time basis (one or two years respectively).

Further details may be obtained from:

DEATH SQUAD

WHERE CAN A YOUNG MOTHER GO TO ESCAPE THE BRAZIL DEATH SQUADS?

Joselita is 14. She knows she is "worthless". At the age of 9 she was thrown on to the streets. She has a year old baby. In Recife, Brazil, Joselita can either sell herself, become a thief, or starve.

She already knows what it's like to be beaten up, raped, knife-slashed and robbed. That's life. But Joselita also lives in nightly terror of the death squads who "clean up" her district — and that her corpse will be dumped one morning with the garbage.

If you were Joselita, you could have one slim chance of escape — the Passage House run by Ana Vasconcelos. This refuge, sponsored by WOMANKIND (Worldwide) and Childhope UK has already given some 300 girls respite from the violence you may have seen in recent television reports. The girls learn to respect themselves and gain the simple practical and social skills that help them take their place back in the community.

There are about 30,000 more young girls like Joselita on the streets of Recife alone.

We want to give Ana Vasconcelos the financial support to open a second Passage House.
 Please will you help us give these girls hope?

GO SEE FANNY DEAKIN

By Joyce Holliday

Directed by:

Robert Rae

Original Music By:

Rod McVey

Tuesday 7th

to

Saturday 18th May

is Staffordshire's first Community Play, the result of over two years of work by the people of Silverdale, a village just outside Newcastle-under-Lyme. The play tells the story of a Silverdale woman, Fanny Deakin, whose desire to do something about the poverty she grew up amongst led to her becoming a Councillor, to campaign for better facilities for women and children and to champion the miner's cause. This is a unique play with a large cast of local people - don't miss it!
