

MAY 1991 £1.65

Marxism Today

Tomorrow

SPECIAL ISSUE: THE AGENDA FOR THE DECADE

Power To The Public

'The public sector is no longer in decline.
The privatisation bandwagon has rolled to a halt.
The great issue of the 90s will not be how to abolish the public sector, but how to reform it?'

DAVID EDGAR ON THE CULT OF THE CUSTOMER

THE GOOD FILM GUIDE

GOODBYE TO THE ZOO?

The Future Of The Public Sector

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 14 | Power To The Public
Geoff Mulgan | The 80s are dead. Reform not abolition of the public sector is the name of the game |
| 20 | Manifesto For The Public Sector | Marxism Today's agenda for the 90s |
| 22 | The State After Henry
Robin Murray | Britain should make the shift to a post-Fordist state |
| 28 | Are You Being Served?
David Edgar | We are all customers now |
| 29 | Serving You Rights
Graham Mather | Dismantling the state brick by brick |
| 30 | Breaking Up The Blocs
Margaret Robbins | The old divide between public and private sector is breaking down |

The public spirit
p14

DEPARTMENTS

- | | | | |
|----|------------|--|---|
| 3 | Leader | George Joffe | The plight of the Kurds |
| 5 | Insight | David Marquand | Ironing out our constitutional creases |
| 6 | Eye to Eye | Brian Morton | Interview with Ken Follet |
| 9 | Viewpoint | Sarah Benton | Party leaders dare to be dull |
| 10 | Forum | | The Tory continental drift and hyping hypertext |
| 13 | Up Front | Suzanne Moore | Psychos on the rampage |
| 34 | Film | Real to Reel
Philip Dodd | Putting the screen to the test |
| 36 | Society | The Human Zoo
Keith Tester | Social animals under threat |
| 39 | Identity | Blonde Illusions
Andrea Stuart | The great Blonde versus Brunette debate |
| 40 | Myths | Unreal City
Mike Wayne | Cheap lives and toilet paper |
| | Science | Gene Genie
Gail Vines | Science grapples with ethics |
| 43 | Music | Dead Groovy
Charles Shaar Murray | Notes from the dinosaurs' graveyards |
| 44 | Books | Poetry in Notion
Eric Mottram | The struggle for black writes |
| | | Greg Kent, Lauren Milne
Henderson | The underside of Europe, three women in a book |
| 48 | Back Page | Sandie Shaw | Birth charts, Big Brother and Buddhahood |

Tomorrow's world
p40

The GREEN SHOW

23 - 27 MAY 1991
NATIONAL EXHIBITION CENTRE,
BIRMINGHAM

10.00 a.m. - 6.00 p.m. DAILY
Adults £3.50; Senior Citizens and Children £2.00;
Families (two Adults and up to three Children) £8.50.

LEADING THE WAY TO A BETTER FUTURE.

LEARN how to live a healthier and more sustainable life.

BUY anything from bio-degradable nappies to the latest Green car.

MAKE your personal pledge to our planet at the show's spectacular Central Feature.

WATCH the show go live on national TV.

MEET lots of visiting celebrities.

TALK to the many environmental and conservation groups.

SEE features and displays to make you smile, hope, wonder and think!

Blue Peter - Badge Winners Get in FREE!

THE MOST INSPIRING
ENTERTAINING INFORMATIVE - AND RELEVANT SHOW ON EARTH

Organised by Green Shows and Conferences Limited
FOR DETAILS OF DISCOUNTED ADVANCED TICKETS TEL: 021 643 3333

The Company of Strangers

PG

A Film Directed by Cynthia Scott

OPENS
FRIDAY 3 MAY

BARBICAN CINEMA

Silk Street EC2
⊕ Barbican/Moorgate
Tel: 071-638 8891