

OCTOBER 1991 £1.50

Marxism Today

Tony Blair sets out his views on Labour's future
John Lloyd asks what will remain of the Union
The apathy over Channel Three

The Election That Will Avoid The Issue

Britain is dominated by antiquated ideas and institutions.
Neither Left nor Right seem capable of addressing the country's urgent need for modernisation.

London Lighthouse

A CENTRE FOR PEOPLE FACING THE CHALLENGE OF HIV AND AIDS

*Drop in Centre
Café
Counselling
Support Groups
Advice*

Creative Therapies

Complementary Therapies

Day Care

Information

Residential Unit

Training Courses

Home Support

©Janet Hetherington 1991

LONDON LIGHTHOUSE 111 - 117 LANCASTER ROAD LONDON W11 1QT TELEPHONE 071 792 1200

nearest tube : Ladbroke Grove

FEATURES

- 12 Russia Turned Upside Down
John Lloyd
Communism is dead. Does anything remain of the Union's former self to guide the society now emerging?
- 16 Interview What Comes After 1991? Ernesto Laclau on the revolution of our time
Martin Jacques
- 20 Modernisation The British Disease
Will Hutton
Britain is a backward society in urgent need of modernisation on all fronts
- 24 Governing Myths
Frank Vibert
As European integration moves ahead, Britain should take the opportunity to redefine its constitution
- 26 Yesterday's World
Fred Stewart
We need a creative technology sector if we are to flourish in the global economy
- 27 Defensive Behaviour
Paul Rogers
A far reaching security review is needed to refashion our military for the post-cold-war world
- 28 Pride And Prejudice
William Wallace
Britain must reassess its past history, if it is to reconceive its position in the world today
- 32 Forging A New Agenda
An agenda for Britain in the 90s

DEPARTMENTS

- 3 Leader Bhikhu Parekh
We need to adjust to new forms of racism
- 4 Eye To Eye Beatrix Campbell
Interview with Albie Sachs
- 7 Viewpoint Sarah Benton
Coming to terms with the communist past
- 8 Forum
Learning to cope with the 21st century
- II Up Front Suzanne Moore
When Arnie meets Adorno
- 36 Television Channel Shopping
Owen Kelly
Who's interested in Channel Three?
- 38 Television A Bid Too Far
Ben Laurance
The new broadcasters may be out of business
- 39 Identity Classical Roots
Paul Gilroy
What colour was Athena?
- 40 Science Research & Destruction
Frank Barnaby
Tomorrow's wars
- 43 Books Rosalind Brunt, Marina Warner, Michele Roberts
Buried letters and quilted texts; a guide to feminist reading
- 44 John Cornall, Kevin Robins
Avant garde poets; Don DeLillo
- 48 Back Page Elaine Showalter
With London written on her heart

Coming next month: Interviews with John Harvey-Jones and Lady Howe
November issue on sale: Wednesday October 23rd

Cover Design: Pearce Marchbank
Photography: Neil Kinnock - Terry O'Neil

In association with The Drill Hall Arts Centre

GAY SWEATSHOP

presents the world premiere of

THE LAST ENEMY

a macabre tale of desire and deceit

by CARL MILLER director DAVID BENEDICT designer ANTHONY BAKER lighting designer STEPHEN WATSON

NATIONAL TOUR

OCTOBER

25-26th Manchester

Green Room

061 236 1677

29-30th Cambridge

Junction

0223 412600

NOVEMBER

4-6th Oxford

Pegasus

0865 722851

7-8th Brighton

Sallis Benney

0273 821054

11th Sheffield

Leadmill

0742 751347

12th York

Arts Centre

0904 627129

15-16th Liverpool

Unity 051 709 4988

18-20th

Birmingham

Repertory

021 236 4455

21-22nd Leeds

Studio at the Poly

0532 833134

23rd Nottingham

Broadway Media

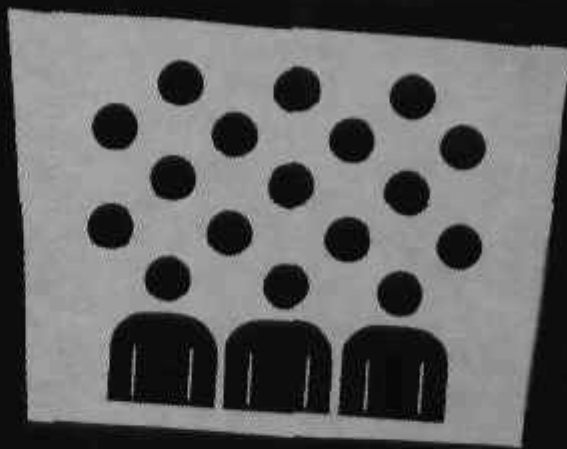

Centre 0602 582506

further details

071-485 5799

THE LAST ENEMY – some secrets are just too dangerous to keep

BILLY BRAGG

DON'T TRY THIS AT HOME

Billy Bragg releases his sixth studio album on 16 September, 1991. SIXTEEN BRAND NEW SONGS including the HIT singles - 'SEXUALITY' and 'YOU WOKE UP MY NEIGHBOURHOOD'. 'DON'T TRY THIS AT HOME' - contains some of Billy's most subtle, poignant songs, most accomplished studio performances and will confirm Billy Bragg's stature as one of Britain's premier singer/songwriters.

C · D / M · C / L · P / 