THE GUILD OF INDEPENDENT MAGAZINES

CRITICAL QUARTERLY. Literary Criticism and Poetry. Main interest twentieth century literature. No specialised jargon but stimulating and readable. Invaluable for all seriously interested in literature. Annual subscription 12/-.

ENCORE Theatre magazine. Devoted to the more serious aspects of drama. Controversial and stimulating with no punches pulled, it nevertheless seeks to balance its ideals with a generous quota of commonsense. Bi-monthly. 2s. 12s. p.a.

NEW REASONER A quarterly journal of the New Left. Features international commentary, political analysis in depth, discussion of socialist theory, committed criticism and writing ammunition for the nuclear disarmament campaign. 140 pp. 4s. for back copies only.

PERSPECTIVE A magazine written, edited and controlled by socialist school students. Serious and stimulating, often even sensible, it is a must for anyone who is either at school or should know what young people say and think. Three times a years. 1s.

UMBRELLA An illustrated quarterly of opinion and ideas on the arts, on literature, on music and related subjects. Coming from the Midlands, it looks different, it is different. 2s. 8s. p.a.

UNIVERSITIES AND LEFT REVIEW A stimulating and provocative journal of socialist humanism. Contains theoretical articles, economic analysis, book reviews, theatre criticism, controversial discussion. Three times a year. 4s. for back copies.

VIEWPOINT The television magazine. Frank and stimulating discussion of all aspects of television, programmes and policy. Television is the most important medium today. Television matters—you need a "Viewpoint." Illustrated. Bi-monthly. 1s. 6d.

WALES The only national monthly magazine for Welsh men. Devoted to literature, poetry, opinion, the arts and affairs, it discusses these matters with a distinctive Celtic voice. Profusely illustrated. 2s. 6d. 30s. p.a.

United for the purpose of our mutual advantage commercially, we are otherwise completely independent of each other, especially editorially. If you would like to see a specimen copy of any of these magazines, please write to the magazine that interests you at :
