Zwemmers New Bookshop

Beside the books you know, we aim to bring to your notice the books you haven't yet heard about. We make a careful and lively selection of the latest, the well-reviewed, the established—and the best; together with reviews and magazines, the best American paperbacks, a few inflammatory broadsheets and a number of absurdly cheap bargains in reduced-price literature of quality.

The Prophet Unarmed

(TROTSKY 1921-1929)

ISAAC DEUTSCHER

This is the second volume of Mr Deutscher's trilogy on the life of Trotsky; it covers the years of struggle with Stalin, ending in Trotsky's banishment from Russia. Illustrated 38s net

Portraits of Russian Personalities

BETWEEN REFORM AND REVOLUTION

RICHARD HARE

'More than potted biographies, though naturally less than full critical studies, his ten chapters are portraits not only of personalities but of the ideas of an age.' THE TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT 42s net

Disarmament

AN OUTLINE OF THE NEGOTIATIONS

ANTHONY NUTTING

A short guide to the negotiations which have been going on since 1945 between the Western Powers and the Soviet Union on measures to control conventional and atomic armaments. (Chatham House) 8s 6d net

The United Nations

AS A POLITICAL INSTITUTION

H. G. NICHOLAS

'... an original and informed survey which gives the general reader an excellent view of a complicated machine such as he could not obtain from any other of the many studies that have appeared.' LISTENER 21s net

Albert Camus

AND THE LITERATURE OF REVOLT

JOHN CRUICKSHANK

'Mr Cruickshank applies a trained and flexible mind to the examination of Camus's thought. His book is fair, orderly, sympathetic and very readable.' NEW STATESMAN 35s net

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

LAW AND OPINION IN ENGLAND in the 20th Century

Editor: Morris Ginsberg

"There is a whole spectrum, from the brief and neutral chapter on family law by Sir Seymour Karminski to the very highly charged discussion of social security by Mr. B. Abel-Smith and a characteristically brilliant piece from Professor Titmuss on the progress in medical science and on changing attitudes to disease in relation to the development of the health service."
—Economist. £2 2s. net.

THE MILITARY AND INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION OF OUR TIME

Fritz Sternberg

"Dr. Sternberg's book should be prescribed reading for every literate elector who presumes, this autumn, to vote a new government into power... it is a brilliantly concise synthesis of the factors, military, economic, scientific and cultural, which are shaping or are likely to shape our lives."—New Statesman.

"... the author's exciting and constructive thesis... skilfully condenses the history of the first industrial revolution so that he can relate its lessons to the future."—Forward. 25s. net

WAR AND THE SOVIET UNION

H. S. Dinerstein

"In this interesting and valuable study Mr. Dinerstein tries to penetrate the Kremlin policy-makers' thinking on nuclear grand strategy... his book is a solid, useful and well-documented contribution to the study of the Soviet Union."—Sunday Times.

"A corrective to the fashionable idea that the Soviet Union has now embarked on a purely economic competition with the West."—Economist. 37s. 6d. net

"Scholarly, balanced and, in the best sense of the word, sympathetic."—New Statesman.
